AMERICANS WON FIFTH BIG GAME

Conglomeration of Errors Long Hits and Vanquished Pitchers

NATIONALS COULD NOT REACH WALSH

Fielded Perfectly. But Were Weak With Stick—Americans Fielded Like Amateurs, But Knocked Two Pitchers Out of Box.

CHICAGO, October 12.—Out of a stadium of 10,000, the Nationals were defeated by the Americans 10 to 6. The Nationals were out of the game in the first inning. The Americans won because they could not hit Walsh's "left hand" delivery. The Nationals fielded like amateurs and the Nationals' pitching was perfect.
